

Angela worked as a dental hygienist from 1990 to 2014 in a reputable local dental office. After much consideration she elected to resign this position to pursue independent practice.

She strives to develop an excellent rapport with all of her clients. She enjoys working with colleagues in a multidisciplinary approach to ensure all clients have an optimal dental health experience. The combination of her education and previous work experience enables her to confidently meet the needs of all clients in a knowledgeable, efficient and professional manner.

During her free-time she enjoys participating in a variety of sports and is a baseball enthusiast. She enjoys reading, loves music and spending time with family and friends. You may find her enjoying a walk or cycling on the local trails.
